GLENEAGLES Terrace Restaurant, Pulau Springs Resort is promoting their Malacca Nyonya cuisine until Sept 30, from noon to 11pm.

The "A Taste of Nyonya" four-set dishes are prepared by executive sous chef Razif Aliman and his team.

The four classic Nyonya favourites that will be presented during the promotion are ayam pongteh, ikan cili garam Klebang, udang masak lemak nenas syiok and Nyonya laksa.

The ayam pongteh, priced at only RM 18++ per serving, is a traditional, hearty and succulent home-made Nyonya-style chicken and potato stew.

Dried spices, fermented soybeans and soy sauce add complexity and richness to this recipe. The ikan cili garam Klebang, priced at RM 30++ per serving, is a Nyonya-style fried fish with home-made spicy chili paste. The spicy paste is made using simple ingredients like shallots, chillies and salt. For those who like things hot and fiery, the ikan cili garam Klebang is the perfect dish!

The udang masak lemak nenas syiok served in a claypot is a Nyonya-style prawn curry with pineapples. The prawns are braised in creamy coconut milk gravy with turmeric. This heavenly dish is priced at only RM 20++ per serving. Guests who love noodles can sample the glorious Nyonya laksa, a Malacca-style creamy noodle soup filled with fresh herbs such as galangal, lime, ginger and candlenuts.

Chef Razif's special seafood stock, blanched cockles, shrimps and fish cakes make this an exotic crowd pleaser. The Nyonya laksa is priced at only RM15++.

All the Nyonya set dishes are served with white rice, papadum, vegetables and pickles on the side.
