THROUGHOUT this and next month, Pulai Springs Resort will be offering a lineup of delectable food and beverages at its restaurants.

The certified-halal Geneagles Restaurant is offering an assortment of delightful dishes. The culinary team has come up with a variety of mouthwatering dishes that will tempt any palate.

Meat lovers can indulge in a variety of tender lamb shank dishes in the "Shank-e-licious Galore" promotion.

Among the dishes available during the promotion include mee rebus ala lamb shank, east-meets-west lamb shank which is a lamb shank dish braised in Asian thick curry and served with potato fritters.

Also available is hot and spicy lamb shank — richly flavoured, hot and spicy broth simmered lamb shank served with jumbo-sized bread, lamb shank asam pedas which is slow-cooked in hot and sour gravy served with rice.

Another one is osso buco which is braised lamb shank western-style stew in the famous classical Escoffier's era way of cooking served with mash potatoes and vegetable.

The dishes are priced from RM20++ per set.

Geneagles is also offering "dragon juice", a fantastic and healthy thirst-quenching drink throughout until end of the year. Priced at only RM12++ per glass, this drink is a delightful mixture of dragon fruit and honey.

During weekends, Geneagles Restaurant is also offering weekend theme night buffets.

On Fridays, during the Mongolian BBQ and Lok-Lok promotion, guests will be able to indulge in a wide selection of appetisers and salad, meat and seafood dipped in a choice of fiery tom yam or chicken-flavoured stock.

On Saturdays, during the International BBQ Nite promotion, guests can take pleasure in a wide selection of salads, appetisers, BBQ meat, poultry, seafood items, ikan bakar station, live action stalls and mouth-watering desserts.

Both buffets are priced at RM48++ per adult and RM24++ per child and served from 7pm onwards. One will dine for free for every five paying adults.

Those who love to dine under the stars can opt to dine al fresco at Geneagles Terrace and enjoy a stunning view of the golf course. Geneagles Restaurant opens daily from 1am to 11pm daily.

Besides indulging in the delectable dishes served at the resort, guests can also chill and unwind at the Elephant & Castle Pub.

While chilling to great music, try the cocktail and mocktail of the month.

"Blue Lady", the cocktail of the month, is a mixture of tequila and Blue Curacao and priced at RM16++ per glass.

"Caribbean Shake", mocktail of the month, is a delightful concoction of banana, pineapple and orange juice and grenadine syrup. The mocktail is priced at RM12++ per glass.

Snacks of the month are squid burger with french fries, Malaysian tapas and Indonesian bergedil. The snacks are priced from RM12++ per portion.

At Qing Palace Chinese Restaurant, the multi-award-winning restaurant, guests can indulge in an array of Szechuan dishes.

Master Chef Lim and his team have come up with four Chef's Picks of the Month dishes for this and next month.

The four dishes include cray fish with salted egg yolk, double boiled chicken soup with ginseng, fried French beans and brieval with salted fish, and pan-fried prawn with Thai sauce.

These dishes are priced from RM20++ per portion. Qing Palace also offers an array of exclusive Chinese teas.

In addition, a Yearend Fun Fair will also take place at the outdoor area, from Nov 30 to Dec 2, from 9am to 9pm.

Activities include games stalls, "Movies Under the Stars", food and beverage stalls and also a flea market selling all sorts of items.

Guests will also have the opportunity to redeem many great prizes from the token points collected from the games, including pens, mugs, teddy bears, umbrellas, food and beverage vouchers, hotel accommodation vouchers and hampers.

Coupons can be pre-purchased now or during the fun fair at only RM10 per book.

Each book contains 10 pieces of coupons.

For details and reservations, contact Pulai Springs Resort at 07-521 2121 or e-mail atenquiry@pulisprings.com.
