CHRISTMAS began early at Pulai Springs Resort with the sale of festive goodies early this month at its food and beverage outlets. The celebration continues with a funfair planned at the outdoor area this weekend.

Guests can purchase a booklet of 10 coupons at RM10 for the funfair. Children can have fun at the game stalls by paying RM2 per game while their parents watch "movies under the stars" on a big white screen.

Other stalls include food and beverages, clothing and apparels, children's books and also a flea market selling all sorts of items for those looking for gift ideas. Pulai Springs Resort is also offering an opportunity for external vendors to have stalls at the compound for free.

The resort's culinary team will also be serving the Christmas Eve international buffet dinner at Gleneagles Terrace from 7.30pm to 10.30pm.

Make a trip to the dessert counter and sample assorted desserts like the traditional Christmas pudding, Christmas stollen, trifle with sugar braised fruits, almond tart, chocolate and vanilla yule log, baked cheese cake and tropical fruits on ice.

Guests will also be entertained by Santa Claus and Santarinas throughout the night.
