Resort celebrates with special buffet to commemorate independence day

JOHOR BARU: Food unites people. In conjunction with the 56th Merdeka Celebration, Gleneagles Terrace Restaurant in Pulai Springs Resort will be offering a Merdeka Special Hi-Tea Buffet.

The buffet will showcase famous local delicacies that will bring guests down memory lane reminiscing the day Malaysia gained independence.

The hi-tea will be served on Aug 31 from noon to 3pm.

Priced at RM40++ per adult and RM20++ per child, guests can enjoy an impressive culinary creation by executive sous chef Razif Aliman.

For starters, sample mixed garden greens, coleslaw and Rojak Buah.

Over at the sandwich bar, visitors can try the delicious sandwiches with a choice of fillings such as tuna or egg mayonnaise with a choice of white bread or healthy wholemeal bread.

The sandwich counter also serves sliced cucumber, tomatoes and shredded lettuce.

Main dishes include Chinese fried rice, pasta aglio olio, crispy fried chicken, mini murtabak with dhal curry, fish fingers with tartar sauce, vegetable samosa with mango chutney and Italian mini pizza.

There will also be a stall serving scrumptious Penang asam laksa with condiments.

Finally, visit the expansive dessert buffet offering an incredible selection of delicacies like assorted fruit jelly and pudding, apple pie, assorted Malay kuih and French pastries and sliced cakes, chilled tropical fresh fruits, Malaysian-themed cake and ice-cream with condiments.

For reservations, contact 07-521 2121, enquiry@pulaisprings.com or visit www.pulaisprings.com to book online. The restaurant is halal.
